Living Literature - Adventures! ~Garrett	$ 60.00	$ 39.50	This class alternates between a different set of powerful books each year, with either a focus on adventure or history, to allow students to take this class twice anytime during 4th-6th grades. Timeless, living literature is valuable in countless ways, and this class will use well written classic literature as a springboard to learn reading comprehension, story elements, writing, literary analysis, and even critical thinking. Students will enjoy reading books, completing study guides, and at times, doing research, creative projects and short writing assignments throughout the week. We'll use class time to cover character and plot development, literary terms, writing helps, dictations and more!! This is an extremely interactive class and students will be encouraged to join in class discussions, and at times will present projects and/or papers to the entire class. Students will need to provide an unabridged copy of the four books we read and the instructor will provide Progeny Press study guides to students at no expense. Prepare to live and learn through Living Literature!!	Basic reading and writing at grade level.	2-4 hrs.	The following unabridged books: Little Pear by Eleanor Frances Lattimore, Mr. Popper's Penguins by Richard and Florence Atwater, The Cricket in Times Square by George Selden and Charlotte's Web by E.B.
