Private Violin Lessons	Glaess, Makenna		Private violin lessons aim to help students develop beautiful sound and enjoy their instrument by learning the technique, theory, and skills behind it. A parent is required to sit in on lessons for any student who isn't old enough to drive themselves. This is meant to help the student focus on the lesson, while the parent takes notes. The note taking responsibility will pass to the student when they're ready. In the meantime, the parent is equipped during the lessons to help the student at home. Any and all questions from parent and student are welcome during and outside of lessons.	Knowing their alphabet and basic math skills.	Beginners will spend 10-30 minutes per day practicing and listening to music while more advanced players can expect up to an hour or two daily.	Suzuki violin school volume 1 with CD (or digital download), a CD player or device available to the student, a pencil, notebook, shoulder rest, and violin. I recommend renting from either The Music Shop at Rockwall or Caraway Strings in Richardson. I am available to help size and pick out instruments, so feel free to reach out. Beware of Amazon violins. They usually end up breaking or at best not sounding as good as a cheap rental. Painted/colored violins are usually worse and cause the bridge to constantly slide.
Worship Piano	Farr, Mylinda	$20.00	This class focuses on chord-based worship. Beginning music theory will be instructed and learning to read music and sight reading will be reinforced. Two-finger chords, moving on to three-finger chords with right hand accompaniment will be taught, depending on each student's readiness. An emphasis on singing while playing is encouraged, as Jesus loves for us to sing to Him. Students will learn folk songs, spirituals, classical arrangements and hymns. Songwriting skills will be taught based on student abilities. This class is offered for Elementary through High School students.	Desire to play and practice piano.	1-2 hrs.	Teacher will provide.
